Fatal Motorcycle Crash

On October 17th, 2021 at approximately 1901 hours, the Manchester Police Department responded to the intersection of Maple Street and Pearl Street for a report of motorcycle versus motor vehicle crash.

Upon arrival Manchester Police learned that a motorcycle that had been traveling easterly on Pearl Street had collided with an SUV that was traveling northerly on Maple Street. The motorcycle operator, a 34 year old male of Manchester, NH sustained life threatening injuries and was transported to the Elliot Hospital where he later succumbed to those injuries. The driver of the SUV was a 66 year old male also of Manchester, NH who sustained minor injuries.

The identities of the motorcycle operator and the operator of the SUV involved are being withheld at this time until proper next of kin notifications have been made.

The cause and totality of the crash are still under investigation by the Manchester Police Department Traffic Unit.

If you have any information regarding this crash, please call the Manchester Police Department Traffic Unit at 603-668-8711.
